

GUEST'S L VE COMMENTS

" My wife & I recently had a vow renewal ceremony at Heartstone Country Retreat. It was the most amazing day ever. The place is beautiful and very romantic. Antonia was so wonderful to work with and she was a most gracious host ...we greatly enjoyed staying on the property, in the Heartstone Lodge. It was quiet and super comfortable. If you are looking for a place to host your next big event, this is the place!. ~ R.C.

“Only minutes away from downtown Lexington, this piece of paradise feels like it's miles away in the country. Quiet and peaceful, with awesome views as promised.”

~ J.H.

"Beautiful place for our wedding reception! Our guests enjoyed the indoor dining and dancing along with a live DJ and outdoor yard games!" ~ A.S.

“It's a tranquil and stunningly beautiful location ...everything we had hoped for. The cottage was well equipped... But the best parts for me were lying in the hammock after dark looking at the stars, and sitting in the meditation garden the next morning, watching the sun come up. I highly recommend this place for anyone looking for a peaceful getaway in the country!” ~ M.S.

"Wow - all I can say is that my heart is still smiling from my stay in the Country Tweed guest room on the 2nd floor of the renovated dairy barn. There is no signage for Heartstone Lodge. Only the gravel road. Low profile. I enjoyed sitting by the pond reading a book. I had the entire place to myself which was so peaceful ...The views from the property are stunning and the buildings and common spaces are charming. I wish I could have stayed longer to enjoy the firepit with another book! The bed was SUPER comfortable ...I can't remember the last time I slept over 12 hours uninterrupted. I will certainly be back." ~ L.W.

“We had a wonderful time staying at the Art Barn. This was our first Airbnb and we were left totally amazed ...we felt like we were completely alone with nature, the mountains, the cows and the beauty of the farm. The studio was so comfortable, cozy and welcoming. We were truly able to rest and relax ...when nighttime came, Antonia's angels were the perfect light in the darkness, so we could enjoy the stars. Everything was absolutely breathtaking!” R.A.

"I am a wedding photographer and recently shot a wedding at this beautiful venue. The layout is wonderful, has gorgeous views and the owner's attention to detail shines. You have the best of 3 worlds - a gorgeous barn, an artistic garden area and lovely views of the Blue Ridge Mountains. I'd highly recommend this place for any wedding couple looking for that 'perfect' location for your dream wedding. It's Amazing!!" ~ M.C.

“ This beautiful space was the perfect getaway for a long, late winter weekend. It's a short distance away from both a mountaintop and a pretty river, and has the charm of history along with modern amenities to make anyone comfortable. We were greeted with a bottle of wine and clean, comfortable, lovely accommodations. We could not imagine a more peaceful or restorative spot to spend time.” ~ A.G.

"Heartstone was absolutely an excellent value for all you receive. We did everything here - lodging, pre-wedding photoshoot, rehearsal dinner, ceremony, reception and Sunday brunch. The venue and surrounding area are special, the perfect size for an intimate wedding of 100 guests or fewer, though it could accommodate more ...A huge advantage - the venue layout can facilitate many configurations, depending on preferences, weather conditions etc ...Heartstone is completely unpretentious though elegant, and the hosts are extremely responsive and helpful ... the place is imbued with an energy of love and positivity, I believe due in part to the conscious and intentional energy work practiced by the owners. I am now trying to convince all my remaining unmarried friends to host their weddings at Heartstone, because this is a place I would love to return to again and again!" ~ V.M.

“What an incredible weekend! The place was cozy and perfect. The listing is entirely accurate and the pictures don't scratch the surface in capturing the quaintness and character of the studio. The land is incredible – don't miss climbing to the 'highest hill' and catching the 360 degree view Antonia speaks of! This place truly is one-of-a king, a special retreat....” ~ L.H.

“As promised, it is a private country retreat with all the modern amenities this city girl needs... The quiet privacy of this country property, so close to the town of Lexington. We felt completely at home.” ~ C.O.

“The place was immaculate. The farm property itself is breathtaking. Highly recommend!” ~ J.S.

"We thoroughly enjoyed our stay! It was all we had hoped for. We were looking for somewhere remote that felt like the middle of nowhere and yet close to things to do and this property was perfect. The space was clean and charmed us to death. The little studio has thoughtful art, good heat, comfortable bed, and all you'd need for two people to be completely satisfied." ~ L.B.

"Exactly as advertised ...peaceful. Fantastically dark and quiet at night. The walks and wildlife make it even more special. Bed slept wonderfully." E.P.

"This place is magical! It was so much better than we expected. Quaint, quiet & relaxing. A bottle of wine greeted us. It was so nice to sit on the Adirondack chairs outdoors with a nice Cabernet. The next day we hiked to the top of the mountain and were blown away by the views. It was a really memorable birthday weekend!" ~ R.H.

"Surpassed all expectations!! Had a stressful work week, came to Antonia and Barney's slice of paradise and felt an instant calm. The pictures do not do this place justice. Many options for outdoor relaxation with awesome views. Clean and charming interior – the brick floors add a fun flair. Do yourself a favor and take the farm walk to see Antonia's sculpture garden. It is beyond words! I happened to be lucky enough to get engaged to my best friend there! Shockingly good views!!" ~ G.B.
